Notes for Earl Edward Covell:

General Notes:

The Covells are a numerous family which had been established in the Lombardy area for some generations. Earl's mother Florence, daughter of Edward Looby of Irish descent, was born at Bass Lake. His father Henry, of English and Scottish descent, was the son of John Covell who farmed on the Bay Road. Henry farmed on what is now the Tower Road, but in 1929 when Earl - their sixth child -was four years old, the family moved to a 300-acre farm on the Bay Road which is now owned by Earl's brother Osborne Covell. For schooling, the Covell children crossed the fields and the #15 highway to attend the SS 5 schoolhouse where the Glen Eagle golf course now is. For high school (which he attended only briefly) Earl went into Smiths Falls by horse and buggy with elder brother Osborne.

Earl joined the army in 1942 and was stationed in England for three years. He then worked for the CPR for two years before going into construction carpentry. When Earl and Isobel were married, they moved into the house on the Rideau Ferry Road just outside Rideau Ferry which Earl had built for them. This was on property bought from the Wills family. At Christmas, Isobel was engaged to teach at the Lombardy school and continued there until their first son, Kenyon Covell, was born. Isobel then did some supply teaching but did not care for it and indeed there was enough for her to do with a growing family and the book-keeping for Earl's growing business. In 1963 the Covells established a retail business in building supplies to complement the construction business.

- vi. Bernice Covell. She was born 1934.
